Information Disclosure Statement

The information disclosure statement filed September 18th, 2003 fails to comply with 37 CFR 1.98(a)(1), which requires the following: (1) a list of all patents, publications, applications, or other information submitted for consideration by the Office; (2) U.S. patents and U.S. patent application publications listed in a section separately from citations of other documents; (3) the application number of the application in which the information disclosure statement is being submitted on each page of the list; (4) a column that provides a blank space next to each document to be considered, for the examiner's initials; and (5) a heading that clearly indicates that the list is an information disclosure statement. The information disclosure statement has been placed in the application file, but the information referred to therein has not been considered.

The forth page of the information disclosure statement filed September 18th, 2003 includes a copy of page 2 of US patent 6,322,365. This list of references contained on this page does not include elements 3 through 5 mentioned in the preceding paragraph and therefore presents an improper listing of references.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art of record when considered alone or in combination does not teach nor fairly suggest the combination of a gaming system including an action figure and a video gaming apparatus wherein the score achieved by the player during the play of a video game is transferred to an action figure and used by the system to determine the effect of the action figure on other gaming objects.

The closest art of record Hongo US 5,766,077 teaches the interaction of video game characters in a video game environment wherein said characters are correlated to a respective action figure however Hongo is silent regarding the transference of game score to the action figure, the interaction effect of the action figure determined by the transferred score, and achieving a player score through the viewing of the video display.

The second closest art of record Mawle et al US 7,081,033 teaches the user of a toy figure as a common game data storage medium across multiple types of game platforms, however Mawle et al is silent regarding the transference of game score to the action figure, the interaction effect of the action figure determined by the transferred score, and achieving a player score through the viewing of the video display.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Robert Mosser whose telephone number is (571)-272-4451. The examiner can normally be reached on 8:30-4:30 Monday-Thursday.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Robert Pezzuto can be reached on (571) 272-6996. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
